

External agencies providing support:

Click on the logo links below to go directly to websites which can provide further information and support about online safety/digital safeguarding matters.

	CEOP: CEOP is the National Crime Agency's Child Exploitation and Online Protection command. CEOP is a law enforcement agency and operates to help keep children and young people safe from sexual abuse and grooming online.
	Cheshire Police: The local police force for our area, who crime can be reported to. Providing advice and information. Crime can also be reported on the Cheshire Police website or by calling 101. Always dial 999 in an emergency.
	Childline: Childline is here to help anyone under 19 in the UK, with any issue they're going through. You can talk about anything. Whether it's something big or small, trained counsellors are on hand to support you. Childline is free, confidential and available any time, day or night: <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>• by calling 0800 1111</li><li>• by email</li><li>• through 1-2-1 counsellor chat.</li></ul>
	Childnet: Providing guidance for parents and carers to begin a conversation about online safety, as well as guidance on keeping under-fives safe online.
	Common Sense Media: Dedicated to improving the lives of all young people and families by providing the trustworthy information, education, and independent voice they need to thrive in the 21st century.

 learn about it / talk about it / deal with it	Internet matters:          Helping parents keep their children safe online, supporting families through tricky conversations, digital dilemmas and setting them up safely.
	Internet Watch Foundation:          Working to stop the repeated victimisation of people abused in childhood and make the internet a safer place, by identifying &amp; removing global online child sexual abuse imagery.
	London Grid for Learning - ParentSafe:          Providing a wide range of advice and support for parents and carers on the latest online safety issues helping to keep children safe.
	National Online Safety:          As a parent/carer of students at Ormiston Bolingbroke Academy, you can access National Online Safety, an award-winning app and website that promotes digital safety and is completely free of charge. Resources include Parent &amp; Carer courses (presented by Myleene Klass), online video resources and weekly guides covering a range of online safety topics and issues.
	NSPCC Online Safety:          Working with families to make sure it's safe for every child to go online. The NSPCC provides support to parents with online safety advice, and for children – to protect them and help them recover from abuse.
	Parents' Guide to Age Ratings:          Explains how the British Board of Film Classification rates content and gives parents advice on choosing online content well.

	Report Harmful Content:          Providing advice about all types of harm online and signposting users to the correct services. Highlighting to the public, a reporting route for non-criminal content. Where the response from industry isn't what was expected, this service can follow a concern up directly.
	Safer Schools App:          This app is full of the latest information on how parents can keep their children and themselves safe online. Download from your app store and then enter the code 7675 when prompted to get free access forever.
	South West Grid for Learning:          SWGfL have developed the Inclusive Digital Safety Hub and Online Safety Hub, providing support and tailored advice for young people with additional learning needs and their parents or carers. SWGfL also provide a range of checklists providing guidance to account settings on different social media platforms.
	Thinkuknow:          Managed by the National Crime Agency – Child Exploitation and Online Protection command (NCA-CEOP) – resources for parents and carers and children of all ages to help keep young people safe online.
	UK Safer Internet Centre:          Provides a wide variety of guides and resources to help young people stay safe online. You can also report any harmful content found online through the UK Safer Internet Centre.
	Young Minds:          Information and advice about mental wellbeing. Whether you want to understand more about how you're feeling and find ways to feel better, or you want to support someone who's struggling.